"Bad Intentions"

Look, I'm gonna be honest with ya. Not every page is going to have a blog entry. These are old pages and that would take me forever. I will do some now and again for kicks and information on my writing intentions for this story and especially for new pages.

"Not-so-Serious Sam"

I always imagined that Eggman enjoyed giving his creations sentence even if they had the most basic duties. This would give some of them a very boring life. There's a follow up joke with Sam that's hilarious IMHO.

"Oops"

I always liked Bokkun in Sonic X. Besides his playful nature, he had a lot of mystery about him. What was the "M" on his belt all about? Also, he was nothing like the other two robots Decoe and Bocoe. He could eat and get a sugar rush and he also had a crush on Cream the Rabbit (in the Japanese version). Also, he had no robot-like qualities. His jet pack seems to be attached to his belt and has no bolts showing unlike the other bots.

I always wanted to write a story of Bokkun's origins. That he was an alien orphan that had lost his memory. Eggman took pity on him and adopted him. He lies to Bokkun and tells him he's a robot just like the others so he can fit in better. I think it makes more sense than how he is in the cartoon.

True story. Jet was showing this page to some of his freinds and they saw the first panel of Amy crawling to Shades and said it looked like some furry porn fanfic! XD
